

Put Your Best Foot Forward with the

Supporters Of Corvedale School

Thursday 28th November 2013

Firstly, well done to everyone who bought in bags2school for the last collection, we made £240.00 which is fantastic and is a good start to our fund-raising for new library books. I will arrange another collection for April/May.

The children who sent in pictures did a brilliant job, so brilliant in fact that we couldn't reduce it down to any less than 6 so we ended up with one per year group rather than one per key-stage! This meant that we couldn't put them all on one bag which left us with a dilemma, so we decided that instead of printing them on bags we have made them the cover for our recipe book which will be on sale at the Christmas fair. The rest of the pictures will also be used in the recipe book between the recipes as they were all so fantastic we couldn't let them go to waste so really every picture is a winner but for those who were the top 6 theirs will be on the cover. The top 6 will find out who they are in tomorrow's assembly.

Anyone who has a pudding recipe they would like to add to the recipe book please send into school by Tuesday 3rd Dec.

For those of you who liked the idea of a personalised bag, fear not, we are still going to be selling these but in a slightly different format. The whole school have drawn pictures of themselves and the staff and we have put everyone's portrait onto a bag template and are on their way to the printers as we speak, we have our fingers crossed that they will arrive back in time to be on sale at the nativity performances for all who wish to purchase as many as you like! Price to be confirmed.

There will be lots going on at the Christmas fair so come along and see for yourself on Friday 6th Dec 2.30-4.30pm.

For the children there will be a special guest for those who wish to visit him there will be a charge of £2 per child, to be paid in advance please so we know which children need to go first because of buses any younger siblings also welcome to visit with Colin or parents also to be paid in advance. On the slip please also select whether you will be attending the Christmas fair or if your child/ren will be going home at the usual time. Slips to be returned by Wednesday 4th Dec.

Many thanks.

Finally, any donations for the fair will be gratefully received, bottles of wine, raffle prizes, toys, books any unwanted gifts.

Any offers of help will also be welcomed with open arms for the fair or serving refreshments at the nativity performances.

Contact details are below or you can find me at school.

Kind regards
